Mount Mercy competes in the Heart of America Athletic Conference (the Heart) and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).
The NAIA, which offers 25 championships in 13 sports, has 50,000 student-athletes participating at nearly 300 member colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

The NAIA Champions of Character program is an educational outreach initiative which emphasizes the tenets of character and integrity, not only for NAIA college students, but for younger students, coaches and parents in our communities. We all have a role in developing students of character, and the NAIA Champions of Character program offers training, guidelines and behavior models to create positive environments that promote personal growth and fun sport activity.

Amir Hadzic
Head Men's Soccer Coach

Hadzic has helmed the Mount Mercy men's soccer program for 25 seasons. In 2011, Mount Mercy won its first-ever conference regular season and tournament titles and reached the NAIA national tournament for the first time in school history. Hadzic led the Mustangs back to nationals again in 2015.

Hadzic is also head boys' soccer coach at Xavier High School. In all, 21 of Hadzic's Mount Mercy players have become head coaches throughout the country, including six in the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City area.

Alen Kudumovic
Head Women's Soccer Coach

Kudumovic became the head coach for women's soccer in December 2019. He graduated from Mount Mercy in 2003 with a degree in business administration and earned a masters in strategic leadership from the university in 2018. While pursuing his graduate degree, he served as the graduate assistant coach for the Mustang men's soccer program from 2016-18.

Kudumovic has been the director of coaching at the Cedar River Soccer Association (CRSA) since 2010, managing all aspects of the organization from coaching to organizing camps and showcase events to budgeting and scheduling. From 2003-10, he was a professional coach with CRSA. Kudumovic also coached with the Heartland Soccer Club and was the head boys' soccer coach at Iowa City High School from 2001-03.

Sho Takaoka
Assistant Camp Director

Takaoka was a four-year member of the Mount Mercy men's soccer team, playing mostly on defense. He was a foreign exchange student his junior year at Cedar Rapids Kennedy High School, then returned to his native Japan for his senior year where he was also a member of several Japanese soccer clubs. Takaoka returned to Iowa to play for the Mustangs and was an important part of Mount Mercy's 2015 NAIA national tournament team. He is currently the graduate assistant coach at Mount Mercy, coaches at CRSA soccer club in Cedar Rapids, and is helping coach the Cedar Rapids Xavier boys' soccer team. Takaoka was also an assistant coach at Linn-Mar High School in the spring of 2018.

COED OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT CAMP
Grades 2-10 Monday-Friday, June 8-12
8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
$200 (lunch included)

Emphasis is placed on development, improvement and refinement of basic offensive skills. Attention will be given to the instruction of good ball control habits and movement techniques in challenging drills and simulated game situations. We also teach shooting with accuracy and power, dribbling moves, coordination/agility, receiving and preparation, passing, scoring, footwork, juggling and ball control.

COED SOCCER CAMP
Grades 2-12 Monday-Friday, June 15-19
8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
$200 (lunch included)

The Mount Mercy soccer program invites you to learn and enjoy the game of soccer, in a competitive environment, from former professional player Amir Hadzic. FUNDamentals, as well as sophisticated techniques of soccer, will be taught on a personalized level in addition to group instruction provided by Amir and Mount Mercy players.

All camp activities will take place at the brand new Robert W. Plaster Athletic Complex at 651 19th Street NE, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Campers will sign in at the main gate.

All camp participants will receive a free t-shirt, soccer ball, and refreshments.

Questions? Contact Amir Hadzic at 319-363-1323 ext. 1543 or ahadzic@mtmercy.edu.
